

4-3-1830

Letter to Sophia Chase

Philander Chase

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters

Recommended Citation

Chase, Philander, "Letter to Sophia Chase" (1830). Philander Chase Letters. 843.
https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters/843

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives at Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Philander Chase Letters by an authorized administrator of Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact noltj@kenyon.edu.

K.O. 300403
Cumberland 3^d April 30

My dear Wife;

The day is very pleasant, and I am decidedly better. I slept better last night can walk better. Yet my arm is still in a sling the flesh is black & blue and the cords are still so worn as to permit me to move my fingers but little, and that with pain.

I cannot lie down on either side - What I do sleep on my bed is flat on my back. This induces speedily an Incurable and I am obliged to rise immediately. I then try my chair of state; and then this time I walk till I am weary again & then again try the bed. Thus I pass my wearisome nights

In the midst of all this I trust
I am thankful and resigned
God is holy, just and true.
He is merciful also; and will come howsoever make all this work together for good.

Do pray for me at the College.
That God would enable me to bear this affliction to His glory; and prospere mine endeavours to see your blessed face once more.—
Tomorrow week I set off Dr. for Cambridge.

Your faithful & loving husband

P. H. A. S.

134 C —
April 8
1820

for W. Chase P. M. Gambier O.

Amos D. M. D.
W. Chase P. M. Chase

Gambier
Ohio

to me

Alice Chase
Collection

Kenyon
College
Library